Lifelong Roberts Park Member Bob Stubbs was installed as Monarch of the Sahara Grotto for 2017—Congratulations Bob!

Dear Congregation,

As many of you know I started attending Ivy Tech Community College last fall with the goal to become a social worker and did surprisingly well my first semester with a 4.0 average. What a few of you were aware of was for this spring semester I thought I was going to have to wait to start up again the fall semester due to my errors in applying for financial aid. Needless to say this made me sad because I really enjoy college considering I haven't been in a school setting in over 33 years, and thinking that I was going to have to wait over six months before I could start up again seemed to depress me all the more. However, last Sunday, January 15, I was given an envelope with the message “for Amber for school” and inside was enough money so I could start up again for this semester while my financial aid is pending. To the person who gave me this envelope and the mystery person or persons who generously gave me this money I have to say from the bottom of my heart ... Thank you and I pray that God will bless you 100 fold for your kindness.

I will do my best with the Lord's help to pay this forward some way, somehow. Your faith and support in me means so much. I also would like to thank everyone else at Roberts Park for your emotional support not only in my journey through college but in my life. I didn't have any biological family here in Indiana when I moved out here over three years ago, but through God I have found a beautiful, caring, spiritual family here at Roberts Park and I love you all very much.

Blessings to you always,
Amber Lynn Jennings
